SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 19.

—Due perhaps to the fact of a number of officers changing quarters Schofield has been unusually quiet this week. All of the captains of the 32nd have been assigned quarters in the 1st infantry cantonment and the lieutenants in the 25th cantonment.

Among those who attended Capt. and Mrs. Robert H. Duennen's swimming party for Miss McCune at Fort De Russy, were Misses Dorothy Palmer and Lila Wilson, Lieuts. Frank V. Schneider, Roy Jones and Edward Rose.

Mrs. Donald D. Hay and two children, Donald, Jr. and Carolyn, left on the Niagara for Seattle, Wash., to visit Mrs. Hay's parents, Doctor and Mrs. Mrs. C. Brown, 2424 North Queen Anne boulevard.

Mrs. Ponting has returned to her home in Berkeley, Cal.

Capt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett entertained at dinner at the Haleiwa hotel before the moonlight dance last Saturday for Mrs. Frank Keifer, Misses Caroline and Esther McMahon, Lieuts. Raymond E. McQuillin, Frank J. Riley, Edward C. Rose and William E. Dorman.

Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames' guests at an informal dinner Saturday night were Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Mrs. and Miss Little and Lieut. Ora M. Baldinger. The table was very prettily decorated with deep shaded asters and geisha candle shades.

Capt. John B. Corbly, who was operated on for appendicitis about two weeks ago, is convalescing rapidly and has returned to his quarters.

Dan Daly, son of Lieut. and Mrs. Charles D. Daly, celebrated his third anniversary Tuesday, his guests being Margaret Torrence, Howard and Jack Bloombergh, Cameron Paine, George Converse, De Russy and Susanne Hoyle. The birthday cake was white with red candles and the cutting of it caused much interest to the little tots. Popping the tail on the donkey and hunting peanuts were the chief amusement. Howard Bloombergh was awarded first prize for popping the tail on the donkey, and Cameron Paine and Howard Bloombergh both found eight peanuts in their boxes.

Mrs. Edward Sweeney is stopping for a few days with friends in Honolulu and will return to continue her visit with Capt. and Mrs. Daniel H. Gieny before sailing for the Orient on the 25th of this month.

Miss Dorothy Forsyth was hostess at a delightful picnic on Tuesday. The party motored to Haleiwa and had supper on the beach at the Golf Links. After the delicious supper a swim in the moonlight was much enjoyed. Miss Forsyth's guests were Capt. and Mrs. Conrad S. Babcock, Capt. and Mrs. Clarence R. Day, Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow, Capt. and Mrs. McCaskey, Lieut. and Mrs. Kerr Riggs, Lieut. and Mrs. John H. Kerr, Lieut. and Mrs. Howell M. Estes, Lieut. and Mrs. Ernest G. Cullum, Capt. and Mrs. Burnett, Lieut. and Mrs. Philip J. R. Keihl, Col. and Mrs. William W. Forsyth, Capt. and Mrs. Joseph F. Janda, Misses Caroline and Esther McMahon, Evelyn Hodges, Susanne Guilfoyle, Dorothy Palmer, Lila Wilson, Lieuts. Eugene Lehman, Raymond E. McQuillin, Ballard Lyerly, Frank Riley, John N. Smith, James A. Uilo, Edward Rose, John Simons, William Dorman, Frank Schneider, Virgil V. Enyart and William McCulloch.

Capt. and Mrs. Clarence R. Day gave a very pretty supper before the Cavalry hop on Wednesday entertaining Lieut. and Mrs. William Nalle, Lieut. and Mrs. Howell M. Estes, Lieut. and Mrs. Philip J. R. Keihl, Capt. and Mrs. Douglas McCaskey, Capt. and Mrs. Conrad S. Babcock, Capt. and Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins, Lieut. and Mrs. John H. Kerr, Misses Dorothy Forsyth and Hortense Short, Mrs. Allen Smith, Lieuts. William McCulloch, William Dorman and Raymond E. McQuillin. The tables at which the guests were seated were lighted by silver candlesticks with pink shades and at each lady's place were dainty corsage bouquets of pink and lavender sweet-peas. The place cards, which were the handiwork of Miss Susanne Guilfoyle, were pink and lavender Japanese lanterns hanging from trellises, on the backs of which were arranged the dance program.

Another attractive supper before the Cavalry hop was that of Lieut. and Mrs. Jerome G. Pillow. Their guests were seated at small tables, which had crystal bowls of pink and white phlox as centerpieces. Col. and Mrs. William B. Banister, Capt. and Mrs.

Miss McRae, a very pretty, vivacious brunette, who with her mother, Mrs. James A. McRae, honored Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin on Wednesday of this week.

Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Raymond S. Pratt, Col. McMahon, Lieut. and Mrs. George L. Converse, Lieut. and Mrs. John N. Hauser, Mrs. Lohman, Lieuts. Eugene A. Lohman and Daniel E. Murphy were the invited guests.

Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames had a few young people in for tea on Wednesday afternoon to meet Miss Little. Misses Caroline and Esther McMahon, Lila Wilson, Dorothy Palmer, Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Mrs. John Little, Lieuts. John Simons, Ora M. Baldinger, Frank Riley, Capt. George Keleher, Drs. Albert White and Harry H. Kern were the guests, the party later going to the 25th Club to dance.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbold entertained at an informal tea dance at the 25th Club in honor of their sister, Mrs. Donald D. Hay, who left on the Niagara. Mrs. Thomas F. Schley served ice tea. The guests were Col. Samson L. Faison, Col. Carl Reichmann, Maj. and Mrs. Thomas F. Schley, Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer, Maj. Frank Albright, Capt. and Mrs. Hugh Wise, Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames, Capt. and Mrs. Americus Mitchell, Maj. and Mrs. Samuel P. Lyon, Mrs. Devol, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Little, Capt. and Mrs. John B. Corbly, Capt. Marshall Childs, Capt. James Higgins, Capt. William Doane, Capt. James M. Lord, Capt. Alexander Macnab, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Lieut. and Mrs. Karl Truesdell, Lieut. and Mrs. James F. Chaney, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard T. Taylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Elvyn Denson, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl J. Ballinger, Capt. and Mrs. Josephus S. Cecil, Capt. and Mrs. La Vergne L. Gregg, Capt. Charles F. Bates, Drs. Harry N. Kerns and Leopold Mitchell, Lieut. and Mrs. Ernest J. Carr, Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles H. Rich, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Black, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tinker, the Misses Campbell, Florence Devol, Lila Wilson, Dorothy Palmer, Elizabeth Little, Caroline and Esther McMahon, Lieuts. John N. Smith, Frank Riley, John Simons, Robert T. Snow, Ora M. Baldinger, Eugene Robinson, Howard Milligan, Alfred Sawkins and Capt. George Keleher.

The officers and ladies of the 1st Infantry will entertain the officers and ladies of the 32nd Infantry at a reception and dance tonight at the 1st Infantry Club.

Mrs. William Nalle complimented Mrs. Hamilton Hawkins with a delightful bridge tea on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Daniel H. Gieny, Mrs. Philip J. W. Keihl, Mrs. Horace D. Bloombergh, Mrs. Lohman, Mrs. James P. Barney, Mrs. Pick, Mrs. John J. Beniface, Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Mrs. George G. Bailey, Mrs. Leonard W. Prunty and Mrs. Douglas McCaskey played bridge. Mrs. Conrad S. Babcock, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Jewell, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Robert O. Love, Mrs. George L. Converse and Mrs. Robert M. Cheney went for tea. Mrs. Nalle used pink and white phlox in an artistic manner throughout the rooms. The winner of each rubber was presented with card table covers, pencils, score pads or packs of cards.

Maj. and Mrs. Thomas F. Schley entertained at a hop supper of Mrs. Lila Wilson on Friday night. Around the three tables, which were adorned with large bowls of pink asters, were seated Capt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbold, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Vanderveer, Misses Dorothy Palmer, Elizabeth Little, Margaret Merrill, Evelyn Hodges, Lila Wilson, Dorothy Forsyth, Maj. and Mrs. Thomas F. Schley, Capt. Alexander Macnab, Lieuts. Edward C. Rose, Clift Andrus, Frank J. Riley, Roy M. Jones, Frank V. Schneider, Robert T. Snow, Otis K. Sadler and Walter H. Frank. Later the party went to the 25th Club hop.

The 1st Infantry Reading Club met with Mrs. Thomas H. Lowe this week.

Maj. and Mrs. Guy G. Palmer's dinner guests on Friday night were Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames, Mrs. John Little, Col. Samson L. Faison, Col. Carl Reichmann, Maj. Frank Albright, Miss Florence Devol, Miss Campbell and Capt. Bates. The table was most attractive with asters in a large brass bowl and lighted by brass candlesticks with shades of the same color. The party motored over to the 25th Club for the hop.

Lieut. and Mrs. Kerr Riggs were hosts at a most delightful dinner on Wednesday evening, entertaining Misses Caroline and Esther McMahon.

Dorothy Palmer, Lieuts. Otis K. Sadler, Frank V. Schneider and Edward C. Rose. Mrs. Riggs' color scheme was lavender and pink and was most daintily carried out in asters of these shades and in the candlesticks. Lieut. and Mrs. Riggs took their guests to the cavalry club hop.

Lieut. Charles D. Daly sailed Friday on the Niagara for the coast, as did Mrs. Ellen Jordan, mother of Mrs. Daly.

Lieut. and Mrs. Richard T. Taylor entertained informally for Maj. and Mrs. Samuel P. Lyon, Mrs. Devol, Mrs. Case and Miss Florence Devol Wednesday night at dinner.

Gen. and Mrs. Robert K. Evans, Col. Samson L. Faison, Lieut. Hornsby Evans, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Capt. and Mrs. Douglas McCaskey, Capt. and Mrs. James P. Barney were dinner guests of Capt. and Mrs. Hugh D. Wise on Friday night. The table was very lovely with a low centerpiece of baby roses and forget-me-nots, the pink-shaded candles throwing a soft glow over the sparkling crystal and silver. After dinner the party went to the 25th Infantry Club to join the dancers.

Capt. and Mrs. Laurence Halstead entertained at a movie party in honor of their nephew, Straughn Schenck, who has been their guest for several months. The guests were Miss Alice Palmer, Norris Harbold, Tom Hedekin, Park Hodges, James Barney, Misses Nancy and Hamilton Hawkins, Helen Herr, Susanne Guilfoyle, Katherine Lacy and Marrow Sorley. After the movies the young people enjoyed ice cream and cake at the Halstead quarters.

Lieut. and Mrs. Karl Truesdell's supper on Sunday night was most enjoyable. They entertained for Lieut. and Mrs. Donald Hay, Lieut. and Mrs. Richard T. Taylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tinker. Later the party went to the movies.

Friends of Mrs. Charles L. Willa will be glad to know that she is convalescing as well as can be expected from an operation for appendicitis.

Straughn, Schenck, who has been visiting his aunt and uncle, Capt. and Mrs. Laurence Halstead, sailed on the Niagara Friday to enter the University of Montana.

Capt. and Mrs. Eugene R. Householder and Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Ballinger were among the arrivals on the last transport.

BIG FISH FEAST IS SUGGESTED FOR CARNIVAL FEATURE

A hukilau, or fishing party, may be a part of the 1917 Carnival program. E. A. Berndt of the Carnival directorate, proposes to hold for the benefit of visitors, a party on the beach at Waimea such as given by Mayor Lane a few weeks ago.

And speaking of the Carnival—the first piece of advertising matter is out. A dodger, with "I am going to Honolulu this winter" printed upon it, is being distributed to business houses of the territory by the Promotion Committee with a request to inclose one in every piece of mail going to the mainland.

The 30,000 posters ordered early this week will be ready within a month, it is expected.

Stockings should not be ironed. If you have no mangle to put them through, fold them smoothly with the hands and roll them up.

Toast will be better if it is placed in the open oven for a few minutes before it is served. This dries out the moisture and it toasts more evenly.

A teaspoonful of mustard rubbed into the hands after preparing onions or fish will destroy the odor completely.

In a good steam cooker you can cook five vegetables and a meat at once in the dishes you may set on your table.
